

Robert Marona

Senior Vice President, Leasing

561.807.1004

robert.marona@madisonmarquette.com

Bob joined Madison Marquette in 2016, and is responsible for leasing, merchandising and new business initiatives where he applies his vast experience in the retail industry. Previously, he served as Director of Leasing for the Grand Bazaar Shops in Las Vegas where he brought unique retail concepts to the sites unique setting. He held senior positions with Saks Fifth Avenue, Bonwit Teller and Harve Benard. Bob also served as Executive Vice President of the Meadowlands Xanadu project spearheading efforts to bring unique entertainment, food and beverage uses to the project, and traditional retailers. As Senior Vice-President of the Mills Corporation, he oversaw all East Coast traditional Mills projects, off-price concepts, redevelopments, and mall property acquisitions.

Bob made the transition from the retail industry to the real estate industry as Vice President of Leasing for McArthur/Glen, then the premier developer of upscale manufacturer's outlet shopping centers, where he managed redevelopment, expansion and new development projects.

Bob is a graduate of Wagner College with a BS in Business Administration and is a member of the ICSC.